

Privacy Policy

Respecting your privacy is important to Studio Essence Massage & Wellness. We are committed to safeguarding your privacy online. We have posted this privacy policy to help you understand how your personal information will be treated when you use the Studio's services.

Information collected via this website is limited to what we need to provide you with the best possible service available. It will not be sold, or rented to any individual, group, corporation or agency. Release of your information occurs only when we have your consent; or when it is required to deliver a requested service to you; or where we are required or permitted to do so by law.

Information Automatically Collected

Like other websites, this one automatically gathers anonymous information about you such as your Internet address, the date and the time you visited our site, and the pages you viewed. This information is collected specifically to better understand how our website is being used and to improve its effectiveness.

Email Address and Contact Information

When you send Studio Essence Massage & Wellness an e-mail or when you request an appointment with Lisa, we acquire your email address. We use your email address to acknowledge your appointment request and/or reply to your questions, and we may store your communication and our reply in order to provide you with a high level of client support.

Booking Services

When you book appointments through this website, we collect and store information about you necessary to complete your booking and to ultimately provide you with the requested services.

Protecting Information

We protect your information with appropriate safeguards and security measures, and we retain your information only for the time it is required for the stated purposes. Only those involved in processing data have access to this information.

Privacy Policy